INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

In our worship, we strive to witness to the wholeness of God, embracing the diversity of images of God that are found within Scriptures. We will seek to include male, female, and gender-neutral language and imagery for God, and utilize language that helps to avoid binary terms in pronouns and images of people. In our hymns and liturgy, we invite you to use pronouns that best express your practice and affirm your faith.

Blue Christmas Worship. Wednesday, December 14, 7:00 p.m. For those who have experienced loss, the holidays can be a particularly painful time, stirring up grief in acute ways. As a result, churches around the world have adopted the practice of having a "Blue Christmas." This worship is designed to provide space for prayer, reflection, and remembrance. In this pandemic season of life, we imagine that grief and loss will be magnified and nearly universal, and we need a service like this more than ever. Come and worship, in the candlelight, in the dark, in the presence of the One who holds you during the longest nights.

We encourage you to try this ancient prayer practice to quiet your mind, center yourself and allow your spirit to move you close to home.

COMMUNITY PRAYER

Bixler Weiler

Leader: If life was a home, then we would pray—

All: May Love be the foundation. May God be the cornerstone. May the Spirit be the windows—ushering light in. And may hope be the walls—holding us together.

Leader: In this hour of worship, let us work toward building that home together.

All: We may not know the path ahead, but God is here, even now. Let us give thanks for a foundation of love.

RESPONSE We Are Waiting

William T. Paxson

ADVENT CANDLE LIGHTING LITURGY

We are a Reconciling Congregation, welcoming all.

First United Methodist Church of Kalamazoo invites all persons to join us on our journey of faith. Jesus Christ calls us to be an inclusive church that exemplifies the kingdom of God. We strive to move toward reconciling relationships with all, affirming those who are marginalized for any reason, including sexual orientation or gender identity.

We welcome all with open hearts, open minds, open doors.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God, When John was Born, Zechariah leaned down and whispered words of love into his ear. We know that you do the same for us, day in and day out, yet we fail to hear it. We forget that in the beginning we were made good. We doubt that we could possibly be enough. We hustle for our self-worth and wear ourselves out aiming for perfection. We deflect words of praise. We hide behind shiny first impressions. Forgive us. Trusting our worth is the hardest job. Open our ears as you open our hearts, so that we might rest on the foundation of goodness you have laid for us. Gratefully we pray, amen.

HOLY COMMUNION (musical setting A, UMH pg. 17)

God be with you
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift our hearts in prayer.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is good to give God thanks and praise.

Let us pray . . . As we wait and watch for your coming among us, we proclaim your goodness.

(singing together)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

God of hope . . . Gracious God, Breath of peace, Source of love, we pray for your Spirit.

Make us, while many, one. Make us, though broken, whole.

Make us, despite death, alive.

And so we pray

Come, Holy Spirit come.

In remembrance . . . we proclaim the mystery of faith.

(singing together)

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again!

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Zoe Newman

Holy God, You are our home. You and your goodness are the place we return to, the place we long to lay our head. So today as we offer you these gifts, we pray that you would take this offering and turn it into ministry. Use these gifts to transform the world we live in to better reflect the home you have envisioned for us—a home of peace, a home built on the foundation of love. Gratefully we pray, amen.
