HOLY COMMUNION

All are welcome to the meal Jesus hosts. There is no one here who is ineligible or unwelcome; no one too old or too young; no one who has too many doubts or too few beliefs. You, who are part of God's creation, are welcome to receive Holy Communion this morning coming forward by the center aisle. As you receive a piece of bread, dip it into the cup of juice and eat. You are invited to add to the prayer quilt by offering your answer to "How do we hear God calling us into Beloved Community?"

Clergy: God of love, we thank you, for you create us in love, all of us in your image, in spectacular diversity of color and culture—all in your image of love and loveliness.

People: You claim us as your children, and save us when we are lost.

Clergy: You judge the forces of oppression and set your children free: free from slavery, free from prisons, free from hatred.

People: And you ask us to join you in the great work of setting all your children free.

Clergy: To guide us you sent us Moses and prophets, and you sent us Jesus.

People: You sent Martin and Rosa and Harriet and Ruby and so many more, and still you send leaders to help us set free your Beloved. Therefore in chorus with all who have been set free and those who long for freedom, we sing your praise.

Sanctus #2257-b

Holy, holy, holy Lord; God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!

Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!

Clergy: Blessed are all who come in your name, and blessed is Jesus, your Christ, whose nonviolent love changed the world—and changed us.

People: He fed the poor, healed the broken, and proclaimed liberty to the prisoners.

Clergy: He stood for justice, and paid with his life, but you raised him from the dead, for justice cannot be killed.

People: Living still, he renews with us your Covenant to be with us in love forever.

Clergy: On the night in which he gave himself for us . . . . We proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Memorial Acclamation #2257-c

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (praying together)

Our God/Father/Mother, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO OFFERING - Human Relations Sunday Rev. Matt Weiler
Loose coins received will be designated for the support of United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) for their work around the world.

We would share your life, your passion, share your word of world made new, ever singing, ever praising, one with all, and one with you.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION (praying responsively)

God of Wisdom, as we bring our gifts to be dedicated this morning, we pray that you might open our ears, open our hearts to hear where you call us to respond with faithful obedience, so that we might do what you need to begin healing our world. In Christ, we pray. Amen.

The text of this hymn grew out of my reading of Henri Nouwen's Life of the Beloved and articles about Martin Luther King's vision of Beloved Community. This text is a way of bridging personal and corporate experiences of belovedness. The fifth stanza is an alternate for special occasions, such as Martin Luther King's birthday.
